Sample Match Profile

I'm looking for a man to share time with. A confident man who is happy, humorous, and humble. A man who is proud of his accomplishments and enjoys his life.

I am a woman who is open, likes to laugh, has a variety of interests, and who is willing to take a step toward finding a possible soulmate and meaningful relationship. I will appreciate all that you do for me (from opening the door for me to pulling out my chair to helping with projects around the house). I enjoy the moment and appreciate all that life has to offer.

Fun to me could be anything from watching a game together (Go Sox!), to cooking together (my BBQ chicken is delicious), to a great spinning class, to hitting balls at the driving range, to a day at the beach. What's fun for you?

I'm passionate about creating an incredible life of personal development, gratitude and celebration. You're a man who values family and an active/healthy lifestyle, just as much as I do. To top it all off, we will enjoy life together, from the day-to-day to the places we'll explore.

My bucket list includes Tuscany (exploring during the day & evenings filled with good food, wine and fun with you and a few close friends), Alaska and CA wine country. Bonus points if you're a beach kinda guy! Hatteras Island is my happy place... the long beaches, sound of the waves, warm water and sand between my toes! Where do like to go? What's on your bucket list?

If my profile and photos resonate with you, you know what to do.
